Meet Christine

Christine Hall

"Growing up in a close knit, working class community, my parents taught me the value of hard work, respect for each other, being true to your word, and accountable for your actions. My deep affection for community and service started early in life and now leads me to want to reach out and serve the people of Roswell."

Christine and her husband George, a U.S. Army Veteran, have lived in Roswell for 30 years. They have lived in both the East near Old Alabama and the West near Pine Grove. Their 20-year-old twins, Lauren and Donnie, attended Roswell North, Crabapple Middle and Blessed Trinity High School. The Hall family attends St. Peter Chanel Church. They are active members of the Boy & Girl Scouts.

Christine works for a large professional services firm in consulting roles of CFO and Director of Business Incentives. Previously she served as the CFO of the US division of a global technology firm.

Chief Financial Officer

Mom and wife

Christine has over 20 years-experience in financial planning, analysis and strategy development. Christine earned an MBA from St. Mary's College and a BS in Economics and Industrial Relations from Minnesota State University.

Christine owned and ran a successful business, Papyrus in Perimeter Mall, and was elected to the Perimeter Mall Tenants Association Board. During her years working with The Bella Group, Christine was a licensed contractor and designer for the residential kitchen and bathroom remodeling division.

Christine grew up in the real estate industry, and during high school and college, worked as both a licensed real estate agent and broker. Upon graduating from college, she transitioned to the mortgage banking industry and remained in lending for several years.

Christine has been actively engaged with the community for many years on issues like zoning, schools, accountability and transparency in government. Christine served on the Georgia PTA State Finance Committee. She serves on the HOA board of her neighborhood, Chickering. Christine volunteers her services at a variety of non-profit organizations, such as CDA (Children's Development Academy) Annual Auction, Clark's Christmas Kids, St. Baldricks Foundation, Pet Rescue.

> “Like many of you, our family enjoys the active community life that Roswell offers. I am one of the advocates and early members of the Roswell Rapids Adult Swim Team. I enjoy team tennis as well as biking. I have my pilot’s license and enjoy flying small planes.”
